DETAILED ACTION

This responds to Applicant's Arguments/Remarks filed 12/04/2009. Claims 1, 9, 15, 30, 36, and 37 have been amended. Claims 12, 16-29 and 45-69 stand cancelled. Claims 1-11, 13-15, and 30-44 are now pending in this Application.

Response to Amendment

1. This acknowledges and communicates approval of Applicants Terminal Disclaimer. The rejection for double patenting is withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-11, 13-15, and 30-44 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record neither anticipates nor renders obvious Applicant's claimed invention wherein, in combination with the other claimed limitations, a user interface is customized on the gaming machine according to preference account information. The closest art of record is Walker in view of Tully which discloses gameplay via a customized user interface, however, fails to disclose that the user interface is customized as well.
4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant states that Examiner's comments for a simulated game outcome reflecting player preferences, made as part of the previous Office Action, cannot be identified. Examiner concurs that there exists a lack of clarity. Examiner was referring to Office Action Pages 6-7 in reference to Tulley wherein the player can view a lottery game website configured according to specified user preferences. Examiner interpreted Tully to provide a simulated game outcome in that the screen would display a lottery game and lottery game information according to the configuration preferences. Nothing in the claim requires the simulation to be an actual game. What is claimed is a simulated game presentation. Thus, the lottery website of Tulley showing a lottery is a simulated game presentation allowing a player to assess how the preferences affect game play. But again, this can be accomplished without a game actually being played. Examiner regrets the lack of clarity.

Conclusion

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Paul A. D'Agostino whose telephone number is (571) 270-1992. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday, 7:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m..
